

Service Standards

Efficiency of services cannot be gauged without a service standard. It also ensures transparency and accountability of service providers. It is important for all clients to understand and fulfill their obligations. Being a baseline for gauging service efficiency, this tool is inevitable irrespective of the nature of organization.